

Ashley Martson Hospitalized with Kidney Failure from Lupus

We recently posted about 90 Day Fiance star Ashely Martson opening up about her struggles with lupus. On January 13, 2019 she was hospitalized again because of lupus. According to her newly created GoFund Me account, Ashley was found unresponsive at her home sometime on January 12, 2019. She was taken by ambulance to the hospital where it was determined that she is in kidney failure. She will reportedly begin dialysis soon and be placed on the donor list for a kidney transplant.
