krish0407 @ryathegirl I've been gluten free and dairy free for 6 years and was recently diagnosed with lupus. Unfortunately it's not as easy as dietary changes, but they do help.

sheenakoche Did you guys split? :(

audrey_soto_mendez Lupus sucks audrey_soto_mendez I'm praying for you stay strong . I had stage 4 cancer . I swear my lupus is worse than my cancer . Fibromyalgia is my secondary illness .
